BRITISH MEET DEFEAT

Boers Win Complete Victory in the Suburbs of Ladysmith.

BRITISH LOSS GREAT

The Boers Capture Many Guns of the British, but Lose Themselves Heavily—Defeat a Crushing Blow to England.

London, Oct. 31.—The war office has received a dispatch from General White commanding the British forces at Ladysmith reporting that the Royal Irish fusiliers, number 10 mountain battery, and Gloucestershire regiment were surrounded in the hills by the Boers and after losing heavily, were obliged to capitulate.

The following is the text of General White's dispatch to the war office:

"Ladysmith, Oct. 30, 10.35 p. m.—I have to report disaster to a column sent by me to take a position on the hill lying to the left of troops. In these operations the Royal Irish fusiliers, number 10 mountain battery, and the Gloucestershire regiment were surrounded in the hills and after losing heavily had to capitulate. The casualties have not yet been ascertained. A man of the fusiliers, employed as a hospital orderly, came in under a flag of truce with a letter from the survivors of the column who asked for assistance to bury the dead. I fear there is no doubt of the truth of the report. I formed the plan in the carrying out of which the disaster occurred and I alone am responsible for the plan. There is no blame whatever to troops as their position was untenable."

A special dispatch from Ladysmith says the Boers suffered severely during the engagement; some persons estimating their loss at 900 to 1000 killed and wounded.

While minor reverses were not wholly unexpected, nothing like the staggering blow General Joubert delivered to Gen. White's forces Monday were anticipated. The full extent of the disaster has not yet been acknowledged, if it is known at the war office. The loss of effective men must be appalling to General White, who is practically surrounded. Two of the finest British regiments and one battery deducted from the Ladysmith garrison, weakens it about a fifth of its total strength and alters the whole situation very materially in favor of the Boers who have again shown themselves stern fighters and military strategists of no mean order. The disaster cost the British from 1500 to 2000 men and six 7-pound screw guns, and as the Boer artillery is already stronger than imagined, the capture of these guns will be a great help to the Boers.

Further news must be awaited before it is attempted to fix the blame where it belongs. General White manfully accepts all responsibility for the disaster, which, apparently, at least, is partially due to the stampeding of the mules with the guns.

From the list it can be seen that 42 officers were made prisoners, besides a newspaper correspondent, J. Hyde.

Interest in the news is universal, pervading all classes and conditions of London's populace. Newspaper extras are eagerly read in business houses, on the streets and by women in carriages. Then there was a rush to the war office, which by noon was surrounded with private carriages and hansom, while many humbler people came on foot all watching and waiting for the names they held so dear.

It was learned by the Associated Press that the war office has ordered the second army corps to be in readiness to be called out. Military officials have not yet decided whether a consummation of the plan will be necessary, but they are determined to have everything in readiness, either for a demonstration in Europe, or to show Great Britain's capabilities for sending an even larger force to the scene of action. Until the receipt of the news from the Ladysmith disaster, the latter course was considered out of the question, but now there is no knowing what steps will be decided upon.

Never was the old saying, "bad news travels quickly," better exemplified here. By noon gloom and bitter sorrow prevailed throughout the British metropolis. At the government offices no effort was made to conceal the feeling of dismay prevailing. One official said to a representative of the Associated Press:

"It is inexplicable and I am sorry to say the moral effect is inestimable. We have lost heavily in many wars and had regiments almost wiped out, but to have regiments captured, and by the Boers, it is terrible."

An official of the war office said: "The disaster is more likely due to a craze of our younger officers to distinguish themselves, to obtain mention in the dispatches and earn a Victoria cross than the fault of that splendid Indian veteran, General White, in spite of his avowal."

As the day wore on the crowd around the war office swelled to enormous proportions and at Gloucester, the home of many of those engaged, the wildest excitement prevailed. Special editions of newspapers were speedily exhausted and the same thing occurred at Bristol and other towns in that country. Coming soon after the engagement at Reitfontein, where the Gloucestershires suffered heavily, brought the keenest sorrow to households all over the country, whose name the regiment bore.

The newspapers made only brief editorial comments on the news from Ladysmith at the headlines voiced the general feeling of sorrow. The tone of the story may be summed up by the following from the St. James Gazette: "It is evident the patriotism and fortitude of the nation are to be tested in real earnest by these operations of ours Natal against great odds. General White had a difficult task set him and we must take disaster with logged coolness, which Britons know how to display. We shall await final result without apprehension."

The Globe calls upon the British empire to receive this "bitter and unpalatable dispatch with a spirit of the great nation that relies upon its invincible reserve strength."

While the announcement of the arrival of General Buller at Cape Town was received by the British with unfeigned satisfaction, it is pointed out that the general cannot end the war without an army corps and some troops which compose it have not even left England for South Africa.

Other advices from Cape Town show that the Boers are gathering in considerable force at Dewdrop, southwest of Ladysmith, while large forces of Boers are advancing over the Helpmaker road.

A big camp of Boers is being formed between Harrismith bridge and Polgietere farm camp at Dewdrop, which it is said, will extend four miles.

The commander-in-chief and field marshal, Lord Wolseley, has issued an order of mobilization by Nov. 6, of the reserves of the Suffolk, and Derbyshire regiments, who will be added to the South Africa forces.

It is understood that the legislative building at Durban has been transformed into a hospital for the Boer and British wounded, who will be treated alike.

JUST A SKIRMISH.

Sharp Conflict at Ladysmith Was Only Among Skirmishers.

London, Oct. 31.—Yesterday's engagement at Ladysmith which despite the rather heavy losses, must be regarded as an extended reconnaissance or skirmish than a battle, seems to make little change in the actual position. It is disappointing to the British public as again revealing tactical skill of an unexpectedly high order on the side of the Boers. In addition to the possession of a number of heavy guns, the transport of which causes wonderment here, they have available marvelous ability. Unless commanded by skillful European officers, it is hardly probable that Boer farmers would have assumed a feigned position, as they evidently did in front of the right column, with the intention of retreating to their real line of defense and of inducing the British to attack over a fireswept zone.

The special dispatches describing the engagement again fail to confirm Gen. White's official account that the Boers were pushed back several miles. When it is considered that the censorship is very severe, the only conclusion that can be arrived at is that the action was extremely inconclusive.

It is quite certain that General White failed to accomplish the object he intended and Monday's proceedings are an instructive example of the difficulty of operations when the enemy holds an extended position from which he is able to make sudden and unexpected developments and changes of front.

Sir Redvers Buller cannot arrive at the scene of fighting until the end of this week. In the meantime General White will need all of his resources to prevent the Boers around Ladysmith from taking their force.

White May Leave Ladysmith.

London, Oct. 31.—Reports are current here that General White may retire to Pietermaritzburg, where the railroad is intact. There is much divergence of opinion in military circles as to the advisability of such a step.

Dr. Leyds Made the Charge.

New York, Oct. 31.—A special to The World from Brussels says that Dr. Leyds made an important statement as to the denials of the London newspapers of the report that the British were levying recruits among the native population of South Africa. "I formally accuse Great Britain," said Dr. Leyds, "of arming the colored races of South Africa against the Boers, and in making this accusation with a due sense of its gravity and absolute knowledge of its accuracy."

No New Cases.

Jackson, Miss., Oct. 31.—No new cases of yellow fever have been reported here since yesterday. One death. The board of health will hold a conference with Dr. Carter of the marine hospital service to consider the advisability of raising the quarantine of the state of Mississippi against New Orleans. It is probable this action will be taken within the present week.

Captain French Dead.

Washington, Oct. 31.—A cablegram from General Otis to the war department announces the death of Captain Charles French of the Thirty-sixth infantry, who was wounded in the fighting near Florida Blanca. His death was the result of a shock consequent upon the amputation of his leg below the knee, necessitated by the wound.

Mrs. Charlotte Sanders.

Mrs. Charlotte L. Sanders, wife of Mr. W. Mc. Sanders, died at 4:45 p. m. Monday, and was buried Tuesday afternoon at 4 o'clock, from the residence of her mother, Mrs. L. Moseley, in this city. The services were conducted by Dr. F. M. Law.

Mrs. Sanders was 49 years and 10 months old, a native of Texas, a member of the Baptist church and a devout Christian lady, greatly beloved by all who knew her.

The veil between time and eternity has again been parted by the unrelenting hand of death, and the spirit of a good woman has passed through into the great beyond, leaving behind her a host of friends, a husband and children.

Many are the times this veil has been parted, many are the heartaches produced thereby, and yet death is tireless and ceaseless in his work. The aged as well as he that is full of days, the rich and poor alike, the happy and the broken hearted must surrender at the command of the enemy of all.

A glorious thought: That Christ met death in his own domain; fought him, conquered him and arose conqueror over death, hell, and the grave, and brought life and immortality to light through the gospel. In this, we find hope in life, and life in death. Let us not grieve for her who has gone, for it is part of God's great plan. Let us so live that when the summons comes to join her we can meet her upon the shining strand.

A FRIEND.

FOR A GOLD STANDARD.

Secretary Gage Will Renew His Recommendation to Congress.

Washington, Oct. 31.—Enactment of the gold standard into law and reform of the banking currency laws so as to give the country a more elastic bank note currency, will be the leading recommendations of Secretary Gage's annual report. When the secretary went before the banking and currency commission of the house of representatives early in the present administration and declared emphatically for the enactment of the gold standard into law, he startled many of his party associates. He stood his ground, however, and has had the satisfaction of seeing the rank and file of his party, with some exceptions, come up to the standard which he has planted.

In the same way the secretary will now take advanced ground in favor of bank reform and a system of banking which will allow banks to issue their notes to meet extraordinary demands for currency. The secretary believes that a system of bank note issue devised which will insure the safety of the note holder and at the same time will not endanger the safety of the money intrusted to the banks by depositors.

He will recommend the enactment of a law providing for the issue of notes against deposits of bonds and greenbacks, treasury notes or silver certificates, and allowing the banks to issue additional notes against their assets. The details of the plan will be practically the same as those which he recommended in his first annual report in 1897.

The advantage of enabling banks to issue notes against their assets under restrictions and regulations which would insure the absolute safety of the notes, it is stated, is that they would thus be able to put out additional circulation at times when money was in demand and to retire their notes as soon as the necessity for the increased circulation had passed. This would prevent the great increase in interest rates which now occurs periodically and would not produce at times such a plethora of money as to lead inevitably to over-speculation.

Yale Professor Arrested.

New Haven, Oct. 31.—Frank H. Chase, tutor in English at Yale university, was arrested and taken before the police court charged with trespass. He was also charged with annoying families by peeping through window shutters. His case was postponed for a week. Dr. Chase admits the police charges, but says he was out for regular nightly exercise and meant no harm. He spent most of the night behind the bars, however. He has been studying hard this year, and his mind is said to have become unbalanced, owing to overwork.

Pursuing the Revolutionists.

New York, Oct. 31.—A dispatch to The Herald from Lima, Peru, says that Durand's revolutionary forces are being closely pursued by the government troops, and, according to official dispatches, the situation of the leader of Peru's revolt seems to be precarious. The public is extremely anxious to hear of some result from the movements of the government forces. It is felt that this miserable, little revolution has already lasted too long, since it is causing heavy losses to the government and to commercial houses here.

Indicted for Perjury.

Guthrie, O. T., Oct. 31.—At Cloud Chief the grand jury indicted Laura Kirk and Redford Kirk for perjury. They are sister and brother, respectively, of Taylor Kirk, who murdered his sister on July 4. At the coroner's inquest they testified that she accidentally shot herself, having been terrorized into this by the threats of the murderer, and for this false testimony they were indicted.

To Study Mountain Life.

Chicago, Oct. 31.—A party of students from the University of Chicago will go to the Kentucky mountains where the recent feuds have occurred to study the frontier life as retailed by the mountaineers. Prof. George E. Vin, head of the department of sociology is making the plans for the trip.

Revolt in China.

Shanghai, Oct. 31.—The North China Daily News has a dispatch from Chung King dated Monday saying a native revolt has broken out at Jen-Fu-hai-Sien province of Kueix-Chow. The magistrate has been murdered and the situation is considered serious.

Drummer Kills Himself.

St. Joseph, Mo., Oct. 31.—John Lorey, a well known traveling man, employed by the Groneweg Tobacco company, committed suicide at Plattsburg Mo., rather than be arrested for attempting to murder his sweetheart, Miss Mary Neenan.

Dewey in His New Home.

Washington, Oct. 31.—Admiral Dewey has taken possession of his home. The last of the furniture was arranged in the house Monday and the admiral's trunks were brought up from the apartments he has been occupying at the Everett.

Fort's Around Kimberly.

Cape Town, Oct. 31.—It is reported from Berkeley West, that the Boers are constructing forts around Kimberly for the purpose of shelling the town.

Richard Webb Dead.

New York, Oct. 31.—Richard Webb the shipbuilder and philanthropist, died here, aged 88.

BOLD ROBBERY.

Two Men Relieve a Railroad Man of Money to Pay Employees.

St. Louis, Oct. 31.—Robert B. Jennings, secretary and treasurer of the Broadway Cable line, was robbed of $1043 in cash and $48,750 in checks while standing on the rear platform of a Broadway car at Broadway and Washington avenue at noon Monday.

The robbery, committed in broad daylight on one of the busiest corners of St. Louis, is regarded as one of the most daring crimes committed in the history of local police annals. Mr. Jennings had just withdrawn the money from the bank, intending to take it to the railroad company's office to pay off the hands.

Just as Mr. Jennings was getting on the car two men approached and one of them jostled up against him. This was done to attract his attention away from the other man, who picked his pockets while he turned to see who jostled him. They made their escape.

Payments on the checks, which were drawn on the Boatmen's bank, has been stopped by the railroad company. Mr. Jennings was robbed of a large amount of money several years ago under somewhat similar circumstances. Two men boarded a Broadway car and snatched up a satchel he had at his feet containing $4000. The robbers were captured and sent to the penitentiary.

DEWEY TO MARRY.

Reports Says He Will Wed Mrs. Hazen Within a Month.

Washington, Oct. 31.—Admiral Dewey has announced to some of his more intimate friends his engagement to Mrs. W. B. Hazen of this city.

Mrs. Hazen is the widow of General Hazen, formerly chief signal officer of the army, who died about 10 years ago, and is a sister of John R. McLean, Democratic candidate for governor of Ohio.

Mrs. Hazen has no children, and since her husband's death has made her home with her mother. She is a woman of large means, about 40 years of age and popular in the best social circles of Washington.

While the date of the wedding is not known, the understanding is that it will take place within a month.

Texas Flour for Cuba.

Fort Worth, Tex., Oct. 31.—Vicente Miret, a Spaniard, is here from Santiago de Cuba. The object of his visit to Texas is to secure Texas flour for Cuba. He says that if the flour can be obtained at satisfactory figures that about 4000 barrels can be handled each month. He says that he finds that Texas mills are doing some exporting business. The Texas flour, he states, will compare most favorably with any flour and is very acceptable for export. If the flour is arranged for, he thinks it will be shipped by rail to Mobile, Ala.

Four Wives at Baltimore.

Chicago, Oct. 31.—Chief of Detectives Collieran has received a telegram from Baltimore stating that Walter L. Farnsworth, the confessed bigamist, now in jail here, and who is said to have had 42 wives, is wanted in that city for marrying four women, under the name of Sterling Orville Thomas. This is said to be his real name, and the prisoner does not deny it. Marie Larsen of Philadelphia also thinks she is one of Farnsworth's wives and has written Captain Collieran to send her a picture. Her marriage took place a year ago.

No Decision Yet.

Washington, Oct. 31.—The supreme court failed to hand down a decision Monday in the quarantine case of Louisiana vs. Texas, and this postponed the matter for another week. The bill of the state of Louisiana asks specifically for a temporary injunction restraining the officials of Texas from maintaining the quarantine. A frost which would raise the quarantine would dispose of the principal motion of the bill, and in fact the entire litigation. The court, it is believed, is taking its time to get the assistance of the frost.

Judge Reagan's Plans.

Austin, Oct. 31.—Judge and Mrs. Reagan have returned from Palestine. Judge Reagan will leave for Richmond, Va., about the 5th or 6th of next month to be present at the unveiling of the monuments dedicated to the memory of Jefferson Davis and his daughter, Miss Winnie Davis.

Insurance Company Withdraws.

Austin, Oct. 31.—The commissioner of insurance has been officially notified of withdrawal from the state of the Germania Fire Insurance company of New Orleans. This company has reinsured all of its Texas policies in the American Fire Insurance company of New York.

Jeff Davis Monument.

Macon, Ga., Oct. 31.—Mrs. Jefferson Davis has written a letter to Harry Stillwell Edwards, the novelist, that the monument to her noted husband will be unveiled at Richmond, Va., on Nov. 9, the day on which the memorial tablet to Miss Winnie Davis will be unveiled.

Death of George Bartlo.

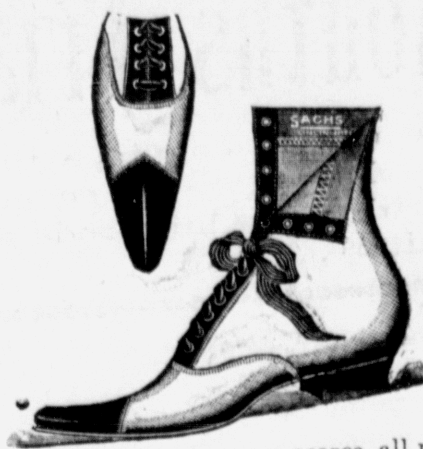

Washington, Oct. 31.—George Bartlo, the oldest clerk of the state department, "keeper of the great seal" and a close friend of Daniel Webster, died at his residence here. He was appointed by Secretary Buchanan in 1845.

Several Badly Hurt.

New Orleans, Oct. 31.—Spreading rails caused the Memphis express of the Illinois Central to leave the track just inside the city limits, and two coaches were overturned. Several persons were badly hurt but none believed to be seriously.

The Eagle is requested to announce that all who intend to accompany the A. and M. College excursion to San Antonio international fair must leave the fare—$2.50 for round trip—at one of the local banks not later 12 o'clock noon Thursday, Nov. 2, and have the cashier notify Col. L. L. Foster at College Station. This course is made absolutely necessary in order to arrange for coach and seats for all want to go before hand, and persons who are not thus provided tickets beforehand cannot be taken on board the train here. The excursion will leave College Station at 7:30 a. m., Friday Nov. 3, and stop here for the Bryan passengers a few minutes later, going via Hearne to San Antonio. The excursion will return from San Antonio Sunday. A program of the exercises on A. & M. College day (Saturday) at the fair has already been published.

George Washington as a Farmer.

Washington as a property owner was one of the wealthiest men in this country during the last quarter of the eighteenth century. He owned at the time of his death 51,398 acres, not including the Mount Vernon estate. The property of his wife was valued at $530,000. In 1793 Washington owned 317 head of cattle, 634 sheep, and 54 draught horses. The general live stock on his farm was estimated at $35,000. Over 300 persons lived on the Mount Vernon estate, and Washington employed his own carpenters, blacksmiths, weavers, masons, cobblers. A shrewd man at driving a bargain, cautious in all speculative ventures, and fond of the details of business as he was of military affairs, Washington's greatest ambition in time of peace was to be known as the first farmer of America.

One of his greatest treasures won as an agriculturist was a massive silver cup, nine inches high, elegantly chased, and bearing this inscription:

"1790.

A Premium from the Agricultural Society of South Carolina to

George Washington

For raising the Largest Jackass."

Under the inscription a very realistic portrait of the animal was engraved. Washington's marriage to the widow Custis brought to his care an estate valued in round numbers at $100,000. This was great wealth in Washington's day.—Farm Furnace and Factory.

Murphy's Fast Wheel Ride.

The feat of Charles Murphy in riding a mile in one minute and five seconds behind a train on the Long Island railway is more remarkable for its danger than for its proof of skill or endurance. Murphy was not merely paced by the train; he was practically towed by it. He rode inside a V-shaped shed that overhung the rear platform. He had only to keep in this while the train was getting under headway and while the air in the shed was getting the motion of the train. The suction pulled him, and when the surrounding air got the motion of the train it floated him along as a fly is carried in the air inside a car. The experiment is interesting, as was the similar one of some months ago, and there is little doubt that the speed of a mile a minute can be exceeded under these circumstances with a wheel of 120 gear. It is more of a test on the locomotive than on the wheelman. It requires no small degree of courage and steadiness of nerve, however, to ride at such a terrific rate on a bicycle. A fall would mean instant death.—Chicago Tribune.

He Hoped Not.

The other day, when it was raining very hard four or five men were having a few glasses of beer in a village beerhouse, when one man said to the company: "It's a drop of nice rain this. It should stir things up in the ground."

One curious old man, who was known to have been henpecked during his wife's lifetime, replied:

"By Jove, I hope not, I only buried th' wife yesterday!"—Spare Moments.

"Well, I'm glad to see that at least one of the Chicago courts is doing its share toward making the golf tournament a big thing."

"In what way?"

"By drawing attention to the links. Haven't you noticed that the trial of that other sausage-maker who murdered his wife has been started?"

An Immune.

"Do you really believe any one can remain in New York and remain absolutely ignorant of the ways of this wicked world?"

"No," answered Miss Cayenne, "not unless he happens to be chief of police or something like that."—Washington Star.

HOBART IS SERIOUS.

His Illness Is Alarming to His Family and Friends.

SUFFERS A RELAPSE.

The Vice President of the United States
Has Choking Spells and His Condition Is Considered Extremely Critical.

New York, Oct. 31.—Vice President Hobart, who has been ill for weeks at his home in Paterson, N. J., has suffered a relapse. He had a succession of choking spells, resulting from an imperfect action of the heart, an old affliction, complicated with inflammation of the stomach. Mr. Hobart has not been able to attend to his private affairs for the past two or three days, and an intimate friend has been given power of attorney to sign checks and attend to other matters of that character.

New York, Oct. 31.—Vice President Hobart according to the opinion of his physician is not likely to die today and may survive for several days.

No Change in His Condition.

Paterson, N. J., Oct. 31.—Dr. Newton has just left Vice President Hobart's house and has gone to his own home, a half block away. He was very reticent as to the condition of the vice president but said that the patient was still sleeping and that there had been no change in his condition.

SERIOUS COLLISION.

Ferryboat Cut in Two and Several Persons Believed Drowned.

New York, Oct. 31.—The Pennsylvania ferry boat Chicago, plying between Jersey City and New York, was cut in two by the steamer City of Augusta of the Savannah line at 12:35 o'clock this morning on the New York side of North river. She went down in seven or eight minutes. There were between 30 and 40 people on board, four being women. It is supposed that several persons were drowned, though there is no positive proof of more than one being drowned.

In spite of the severity of the accident, there was no panic. Most of the persons were on the upper deck only half dozen were on the lower deck. Most of the passengers managed to obtain life preservers. Some others who could not obtain them, about half a dozen, swam ashore.

The City of Augusta stopped after the accident, but apparently no boats were launched, and in the brief space of time which elapsed, nothing was done to assist the persons in the water. Estimates made by the persons who succeeded in escaping vary widely, some thinking it possible that only one loss of life resulted, while others believe that at least a score of persons were drawn into the whirling stream as the ferryboat sank.

The steamboat squad a few minutes before 2 o'clock found a body which it is supposed is that of one of the passengers on the ferryboat, drowned as a result of the collision.

Everything was done under the circumstances to pick up persons from the water.

Two Lives Lost.

New York, Oct. 31.—Two lives were lost by the sinking of the ferryboat Chicago, which was struck by the steamer City of Augusta, in North river. The dead are John Bryson, aged 45, mail driver, body found in river. J. Vroom, fireman of ferryboat, body supposed to be in stokehole of the sunken steamer.

SUCCESSFUL TESTS.

Marconi Sends Messages Over Twenty Miles Without Wires.

New York, Oct. 31.—Over 29 miles of the Atlantic ocean, over housetops, church spires, towering office buildings, the Marconi electrical ripples successfully carried and dropped messages between two moving warships Monday. The naval test at sea proved that within a radius of 21 miles, messages can be transmitted by wireless telegraphy with all the accuracy and precision of an ordinary land line.

It also proved that hills, high buildings, wires and wind currents do not break the force of the electrical waves. By prearrangement operations on board the New York were conducted by Marconi himself. One of his assistants operated the instrument on the Massachusetts, while another Marconi expert was stationed in the lighthouse on the highlands of Navesink. The message which the New York, as she passed down the North river sent to the Massachusetts, lying at her anchorage at Thirty-fifth street, was read plainly in dots and dashes at Navesink, 19 miles away. It was: "Follow us down at 1 p. m."

This message was the overture to the telegraph testing programme which concluded about 75 messages, all of which had been prepared by the naval board and especially difficult.

Young Kelley's Death.

Austin, Oct. 31.—The sad news was received here announcing the death of William F. Kelley at Philadelphia, Pa., from the effects of an electrical shock received while pursuing his vocation as an electrician. His parents reside here and young Kelley was well and favorably known. He was a prominent student of St. Edward's college.

NOT ENOUGH MEN.

United States Will Go on Recruiting
Men at Forty-Two Stations.

Washington, Oct. 31.—Notwithstanding the fact that all of the volunteer regiments have their full quota of men, there is still a chance for "Young America" to serve his country in the Philippines, Cuba or Porto Rico. Army recruiting is to go right along to fill vacancies in all of those places, but under a somewhat different system. Orders will be issued in a day or two relieving the hundred officers now on recruiting service, to take effect Dec. 1 next, and closing some temporary recruiting rendezvous. Instead of more than 100 stations there will be only 42 after the date mentioned. This is a larger force than was detained for this service prior to the war.

The army is now recruiting to within 1000 of its authorized strength of 100,000 men. It is estimated that vacancies will occur in the Philippines, by reason of casualties and expiration of time of service at the rate of 500 a month, and about the same rate among the troops in the United States, Cuba and Porto Rico, making about 1000 men that will be required each month.

Tramps Held Up and Robbed.

Perry, O. T., Oct. 31.—A holdup occurred on a flat car coming through the Oteo country Saturday. The car was pretty well loaded with tramps the poor fellows making for the Guthrie street fair. An old man and his boy, musicians, from Wichita, were also among the number. While the freight train was coming through the lonely Indian reservation one of the tramps drew a revolver, lined up the whole outfit, took what little cash they had and made them promise under penalty of death to say nothing about it until they left the car at Guthrie. The promise was religiously kept, but every effort to find the bold highwayman after he jumped from the car at Guthrie failed. He is supposed to be one of the desperate characters that broke jail at Wichita.

Takes Two Kinds of Poison.

Terre Haute, Ind., Oct. 31.—Mrs. Pearlina Oldham-Kennedy committed suicide here by taking both laudanum and strychnine. Before going to bed for the night she asked her daughter, Stella Oldham, aged 17, to join her in committing suicide. Not long ago Mrs. Kennedy drove her husband from home because, as she said, he was worthless. A few weeks ago a son, William Oldham, got into serious trouble through a saloon fight, and since then the mother has been talking of suicide. When she paid her life insurance premium to one of the mutual companies a few days ago she told the agent that it was the last payment she would make, and that it would next be the company's turn to pay.

Watchman Kills a Burglar.

Lincoln, Ills., Oct. 31.—In a raid by burglars on a country store in Beason, a village near here, Night Watchman William J. Mowry routed the gang and instantly killed one of the number, John Petter, a discharged member of company D, Thirty-ninth infantry, United States volunteers. When Petter stepped into the store, after breaking open the door, he was shot in the head and face by the night watchman, who had patiently waited inside for nearly an hour with a shotgun. The burglar fell dead, and his companions fled. The villagers were aroused and scoured the adjoining country for the fugitive robbers, but without success.

Fire at Sing Sing.

New York, Oct. 31.—The new administration building at Sing Sing prison, built by convict labor under Warden Sage and considered to be one of the handsomest structures of the kind in the country, was half destroyed by fire; loss about $50,000, insured. There were 28 patients in the hospital when the fire broke out. They were quickly moved to the old building and temporarily provided for there. The top floor was the prison hospital.

Killed by Mistake.

Manchester, Ky., Oct. 31.—Another murder is reported in Clay county growing out of the Philpot-Griffin feud. Mark Hall, a renter, living on George Philpot's farm, was shot and killed. Hall did not belong to the feud, and it is believed he was mistaken for one of the Philpots. Green Griffin escaped from jail Monday night.

Struck With Paralysis.

New Orleans, Oct. 31.—Charles E. Parker, the well known billiard manager, was struck with paralysis in the right side here Monday night and is now at the Charity hospital, being in a precarious condition, and hardly expected to live. He is well known through the country as a manager of billiard tournaments.

Murder and a Lynching.

Weir City, Kan., Oct. 31.—Weir City was the scene Monday night of a double tragedy. Gus McArdle, a bartender at Berry Jones' saloon, was shot and killed at 10:30 and in less than two hours his supposed murderer, George Wells, a negro miner from Scammon, was swinging to a telephone pole, the victim of a mob which forcibly took him from jail.

Burned Two Men to Death.

Terre Haut, Ind., Oct. 31.—An electric spark from the switchboard at the Indiana Powder company's plant at Fontanet ignited some powder on the cap of an employee, burning to death two men and seriously injuring another.

Lives Lost in a Hotel.

Montreal, Oct. 31.—The Webster House burned here. Several persons are supposed to have been burned or suffocated. Three bodies have been recovered.
